Bill has been an active member of The Cathedral Church of St. Mark since 2006. He served two terms on the Vestry and was Junior Warden for two years. Bill is very much active in several ministries, serving as an Usher, Lay Eucharistic Minister and Lay Reader. He also serves as the coordinator and scheduler for those three ministries.

Serving eight years as a Civil Service Commissioner in West Valley City, Bill demonstrated a number of qualities that would be beneficial to the Stand Committee. He is a good listener with the ability to look impartially at issues, ask questions then thoughtfully and prayerfully offer his opinion, always with the goal of finding solutions.
