Statement of why nominee would make a good office holder

Susan is the lead chaplain at the University of Utah Health Care and in that role she regularly navigates the complicated waters of a large health care system. She balances the spiritual needs of the patients, families and staff and supporting the goals of the institution. She is thoughtful in her deliberation of ethical issues as a consulting member of the Ethics Committee. She carefully weighs the costs and benefits for all involved in challenging and important decisions.

As a lifelong Episcopalian she is familiar with the governing structure and business of the Church. She is dedicated to helping the diocese work within our values and mission. She desires to take an active role with the diocese to envision how we will continue to be the Episcopal Church in Utah and work towards new goals.

She has strong leadership skills and several years of experience participating on active boards for non-profit organizations. She currently serves on the board for Family Promise, SLC and the Assembly of Episcopal Health Care Chaplains.

Has the nominee has affirmed that he/she is willing to serve? Yes
